

Page Denied

QUIZ About People and Places In the News of the Week

1. Last week's elections in Argentina resulted in return to power of several supporters of former dictator, Juan Peron. Where is Peron now and when was he ousted?
2. France and Algerian rebels signed a cease-fire agreement that ended the war in Algeria. How long had this war been going on?
3. Next week the U.N. Security Council will consider Syrian charges that Israel has been guilty of aggression. With what acts is Israel being charged?
4. Princess Grace of Monaco, the former Grace Kelly, announced that she will go to Hollywood late this summer to make a motion picture. What was her last picture?
5. Former Vice President Nixon charged in a new book that President Kennedy endangered national security during the 1960 campaign when he called for U.S. intervention in Cuba. How did Mr. Kennedy supposedly do this?
6. What U.S. Senator criticized both the Eisenhower and the Kennedy Administrations for giving too much importance to the United Nations?
7. The Supreme Court ruled last week that a defendant who has been acquitted in a Federal criminal case cannot be retried under any circumstances because this would violate the double jeopardy clause in the Constitution. What does this clause state?
8. The Soviet Union turned down President Kennedy's bid for cooperation in space efforts. True or false?
9. Which team won the Scotch Cup World Curling Tournament in Edinburgh?
10. Four unusual defendants appeared at a trial in Messina, Italy. They and three others are accused of being part of a Sicilian extortion and murder ring. What is so different about the four?

(Answers on Page 15)

Quiz Answers

(Questions on Page 5)

1. Peron was ousted by the military in 1955 and is now in Madrid, Spain.
2. Seven years and five months.
3. Syria charged the Israeli police boats attacked her shore positions on the Sea of Galilee. Israel is counter charging that the Syrians fired first on unarmed Israeli fishing boats in the waters.
4. To Catch a Thief in 1958.
5. Mr. Nixon claims that the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) had told Kennedy, before the campaign, that an armed invasion of Cuba was being planned.
6. Henry M. (Scoop) Jackson, Democrat from Washington.
7. The Fifth Amendment of the Constitution states: "... nor shall any person be subject for the same offense to be twice put in jeopardy of life and limb." In other words, a man can't be tried for the same crime twice.
8. False. Khrushchev agreed to the President's plan for joint efforts.
9. Canada, unbeaten in the Tournament.
10. They are Capuchin friars.